

Only ONE candidate for the 8th House District
had the bad judgment
to give to the Obama
Victory Fund.

Now, he wants to become YOUR State Representative.

Lawyer Darrell Moore

Moore can perhaps be excused for donating to Obama's 2008 campaign. Many were tricked by the false narrative of "Hope and Change;" however, by repeatedly funding Obama through 2012, Moore demonstrated extremely bad judgment.

Moore financed Obama AFTER Obamacare, Obama's calls for gun control and Obama's attempt to control education by bribing states into implementing standards such as Common Core.

As our State Rep., Moore would be responsible for casting hundreds of votes for us. Why should House District 8 voters believe Moore would suddenly start to show good judgment as he casts votes in the State Legislature.

Auditor Tom Gann

Tom knows that our nation is paying a heavy price for Obama's progressive movement of radical leftism and the resulting threat of mob rule we now face.

Tom knew the dangers of Obama's progressive agenda and had the good judgment to oppose Obama and his agenda -- from day one!

At a time when America's values such as "innocent until proven guilty" are under attack like never before, this is the type of good judgment we must have in our State Representative.

For sure, we don't need a leader who had the bad judgment to finance Obama and his progressive, toxic agenda that's now grown up and is threatening to tear our country apart.

From 2007 through 2012, Lawyer Darrell Moore gave to Obama not once, not twice, but seven times!
In total, Moore sent hundreds of dollars to Obama's campaign and Obama's seedy super pac. (Source: FEC.gov)
