

The Legislature Needs an Auditor!

*"This is a huge problem we have at the Capitol!
We have no accountants in the House or the Senate! None!"
- State Auditor Gary Jones*

As the Airports Auditor for the Tulsa International Airport Tom Gann is responsible for auditing vendor agreements and holding vendors accountable.

Tom takes this important role very seriously and with your vote on November 8th he will go to work holding government accountable.

Just as Tom would never compromise his auditor job by taking gifts or donations from vendors, he knows it is just as wrong for a legislator to take from the lobbyists and their employers who have millions riding on the legislator's votes.

Tom won't take their gifts or donations; and, with your vote in November, he will deploy his skills as a professional auditor on behalf of you -- the taxpayer!

Send a message to the entire State of Oklahoma: it's possible for an ethical candidate to win office without financing his campaign with money from special interests groups.
